

21 April 2022

Good morning Kindergarten Families,

Tomorrow, Friday 4/22, we will be hiking in the woods behind the school. We are going on a scavenger hunt for Earth day. Important information for our hike:

- non dress code pants are allowed
- make sure that pants can be tucked into socks
- students must have boots
- apply bug spray before school
- warm sweatshirts are recommended for the hike

Tomorrow is also our poetry day! We will be reciting our poems for the first grade in the morning and our reading buddies in the afternoon. The students have been working hard to memorize the poems that they wrote and illustrated. Please have your student practice one more time at home tonight. I will video our morning poetry reading and email it out to families.

Yours in Christ,
