

Visit your local library. Choose any book.	Sign up for a summer reading club.	Research your favorite animal.	Read a magazine such as Highlights	Read about a child in another country. What is his or her name?
Read a children's Bible every week.	Read a calendar. Find the days of the week.	Read a book of poems. Listen for the rhymes.	Read a book by Dr. Seuss. Draw a funny character.	Look up 3 words in a dictionary. Notice the ABC order.
Look at a table of contents in any text. Find a page number.	Read a book about America. What state is the setting?	Read a book by Leo Lionni. What problem is in the story?	Read a book by Laura Numeroff. How is a character like you?	Read a Biscuit book by A. S. Capucilli. Tell a feeling word from the story.
Read a recipe. Do some cooking with your family.	While you travel, read state license plates. How many states did you read?	Read a book about transportation. - cars, trains, boats etc.	Read a Clifford book by N. Bridwell. Does it have a happy ending?	Read an Eric Carle book. Make a picture with lots of color.

Students are to complete a minimum of 10 activities. Show work by coloring boxes that are completed. Please submit the resulting sheet to Mrs. Riendeau by September 30th. Students are encouraged to participate in these Language Arts activities to build readiness skills, enjoy positive reading experiences, and gain academic enrichment. Submissions will be recognized in class with a celebration and a reward. Happy summer reading! I'll see you soon! Mrs. Riendeau

